

Nursery Newsletter
Friday 14th February 2025

Happy Friday! We can't believe how fast this half term passed.

We have had another wonderful week in Nursery, the children have enjoyed our Valentine's themed activities. We have made some lovely heart handprint pictures, lots of valentines colouring and even heart biscuits on Thursday. We also had lots of valentines themed counting and fine motor activities.

The children amazed me during their Spanish session with Miss Saez on Thursday. I cannot believe how quickly they are picking up the Spanish words. Their singing to the 'Hello' song was so lovely to hear.

During our Outdoor Learning session on Wednesday, we took Maggie and went on a treasure hunt. The children had to find little treasures on the ground to add to their Journey Sticks. Maggie was more interested in trying to take Miss Bardsley's stick!

In their French lesson on Wednesday with Madame Tourigny, the children started to learn the names of all different types of fruits.

Nursery Notices

School closes today at 3.10 for all pupils (Late Stay will be open as usual) and will reopen again on Monday 24th February. Our Non-Term-Time Nursery and Kindergarten provision will be open next week from 7: 30 am - 5.00 pm for all who have booked on. I will upload the menu for next week to Tapestry later on today.

Our topic for next half term is 'Pirates'. We will hopefully be having a Pirate Party towards the end of the term (pirate costumes optional,) date yet to be confirmed, but I will let you know.

World Book Day The school will be celebrating World Book Day on Wednesday 5th March. As we have various classes out that day we won't be asking the whole school to dress as their favourite book character. However, Miss Bardsley loves World Book Day and has already bought everything to make her costume, so we will be dressing up in Nursery!

We would like the children to come dressed as a character from a Julia Donaldson book. Miss Bardsley, Miss Hamilton, Miss Smith and Miss Saez have a group themed costume planned!

We hope you have a great half term and look forward to seeing everyone after the holiday.
